DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims 13-14 drawn to an invention nonelected without traverse in the reply filed on 1/19/06. A complete reply to the final rejection must include cancellation of nonelected claims or other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144) See MPEP § 821.01.

2. Claims 13-14 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected inventions, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 1/19/06.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102/103

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1713

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1-12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Briot et al. (Organic Letters (2000), ACS., 2(11), 1517-1519) for the reasons of record.

The article to Briot et al. discloses a ring-closing metathesis process using Ruthenium Grubbs catalyst.

Compound/substrate 11 disclosed in Table 1, which falls within the scope of the instant monomer (III) expressed in claim 4, and the corresponding cyclic product within the scope of the instant (II) expressed in claim 1. Prior art specifically discloses the dimerization product using Grubbs catalyst 2, which falls within the scope of the instant thermoplastic resin (II) which has a minimum number of n is 1 or higher recurring units expressed in claim 1, and the recited thermoplastic resin obtained by polymerizing a monomer of formula (III) in claim 4, absent evidence that the respective products do in fact differ in kind. Furthermore, the examiner is of the position that the recited properties are inherent in prior art product because identical monomer and thermoplastic resin are employed and formed within the scope of the present claims. The burden is placed upon the applicant to provide clear evidence that the respective compositions do in fact differ. Furthermore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to replace the phenyl R group with hydrogen as expressed in claims 3 and 6, in light of their closely related structures and the resulting expectation of similarly reactivity and properties.

Double Patenting

6. Claims 1-12 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-3, 11-12, 19-20, and 25-26 of U.S. Patent No. US 6,939,595 B2. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instant claims are generic to and fully encompass the thermoplastic allyloxymethylstyrene resin structurally defined in the patented claims.

7. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's remarks filed on 7/5/06 have been fully considered. Applicant's argument with respect to the 103 rejections over Butler et al. are found to be persuasive. Accordingly, the 103 rejections are hereby withdrawn in this office action. Applicant's argument with respect to Briot have been considered but are not found to be persuasive. The record is not clear that there is a definitive difference between the claimed thermoplastic resin (II) which only requires recurring unit n to be 1 or higher, and the thermoplastic resin expressed in claim 4 in a product by process format.

Accordingly, the examiner's position is maintained for the reasons of record.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
